

The Latin American Association in Atlanta seeks an experienced, bilingual immigration attorney to represent non-citizens with affirmative applications and in removal proceedings. The attorney will interview, screen, advise and represent non-detained clients before USCIS and EOIR. The attorney must possess a minimum of two years experience in family-based immigration and removal defense, as well as membership in good standing of a State Bar. Excellent oral and written communication skills in English and Spanish required. Prior supervisory experience and ability to work under grant requirements with minimal supervision required. Must be sensitive to the needs of low income and culturally diverse clients. Submit cover letter and resume to Jonathan Eoloff, Director of Immigration Services, at jeoloff@thelaa.org
