This groundbreaking new two-day event hosted by the Latin American Association addresses critical issues impacting Georgia’s rapidly growing Latino community.

Day 1

State of Latinos in Georgia | 8:30 a.m. – 4 p.m.

Networking Reception | 4 – 6 p.m.

Day 1 focuses on macro-level dynamics affecting the state’s 1 million Latinos and their social, economic, political and policy implications. The day concludes with a networking cocktail reception to connect stakeholders from across Georgia.

Day 2

Latino Education Summit | 8:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Latino Housing Summit | 8:30 a.m – 4:30 p.m.

Day 2 features concurrent education and housing summits that dive deeper into these key areas to understand the issues, explore innovative initiatives, promote systemic solutions and build the capacity of organizations and agencies in Georgia to serve the Latino population.

TICKETS $75

REGISTER ONLINE

www.thelaa.org/2018StateofLatinos

Sponsorship opportunities still available.
THE STATE OF LATINOS IN GEORGIA CONFERENCE
WILL FEATURE NATIONALLY-KNOWN SPEAKERS INCLUDING:

KEYNOTE SPEAKER
Alexander Acosta
United States Secretary of Labor

OPENING PLENARY SPEAKERS
Alejandra Ceja
Executive Director, Panasonic Foundation
Former Executive Director, White House Initiative on Education Excellence for Hispanics

Carlos Oseguera
Regional Director, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development

CHALLENGE SPEAKER
Representative, Rafael Anchia
District 103, Texas House of Representatives

FEATURED SPEAKERS AND PRESENTERS
Janet Murguía
President, UnidosUS
(Formerly National Council of La Raza)

Brent Wilkes
CEO, League of United Latin American Citizens (LULAC)

Ali Noorani
Executive Director,
National Immigration Forum

David Lubell
Founder and Executive Director,
Welcoming America