Latino Youth Leadership Conference

November 6, 2021 | TBD | 9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m. | In-Person

The annual Latino Youth Leadership Conference is a day-long event that inspires Latino students to graduate from high school and pursue college and careers. This event, for middle and high school students, features renowned motivational speakers, a College & Career Fair, and workshops on college access, leadership development and career exploration.

More than 2,000 students, parents and teachers attend the Latino Youth Leadership Conference each year. The event offers sponsors and exhibitors the opportunity to engage with Latino teens, families, and educators and impact their education and careers.
