Impact by department:

Family Well-Being:

Expanded to a larger service center in Lawrenceville, providing even more families with emergency rental assistance, food, clothing, and case management.

Economic Empowerment:

In partnership with the League of United Latin American Citizens (LULAC) and Cox Enterprises, opened a new technology hub in our Atlanta office, allowing us to serve over 1,800 adult learners in computer and English classes throughout the year.

Immigration:

Led the New Americans Campaign in Atlanta, a national network of respected immigration organizations, legal service providers, foundations, and community leaders who work to transform the path to becoming a new American. Naturalized 131 immigrants throughout the year.

Advocacy:

Hosted our first annual State of Latinos Conference, a two-day nonpartisan summit that shone a light on the Hispanic community's impact on Georgia's economy to over 500 attendees.

Education:

Long-term LAA Education program participant, Mario Aleman, graduates valedictorian from Cross Key High School. 94% of participating students increased or maintained their grades throughout the school year.
